

NO PRINT ZONE

The diagram illustrates a page layout with a light blue background. A white rectangular area is positioned at the bottom, representing the printable region. Above this white area, a light blue curved band is labeled 'NO PRINT ZONE'. Two thin blue lines originate from the top corners of the white area and extend upwards and outwards, meeting the edges of the light blue band. The overall shape of the page is defined by a light blue border.